

OpenCTI As A Service - Large

Product Summary

Filigran's OpenCTI As A Service offering provides customers with a full managed, up-to-date OpenCTI instance in the cloud. Each instance is running in its own infrastructure tenant to ensure strict segregation between customers.

Resources

- Up-to-date dedicated instance in the cloud
- Tenant size
 - 16vCPU
 - 64G of RAM
- Data storage / retention
 - 512GB for entities/relationships (Elastic)
 - 1TB for S3 (file storage)
- Unlimited sources and enrichment connectors
- Unlimited users

Features

- OpenCTI Enterprise Edition included
- Audit logging and user behavior analytics
- Automation scenarios and playbooks
- Full text indexing of documents
- Natural language processing of data
- Advanced correlation and machine learning

Included in all plans

Standard Technical Support

- Ticketing system
- 10/5 support coverage
- 24 hours response times
- Urgent issue 4 hours SLA
- Security notifications
- Unlimited questions and issues
- 2 health checks per year
- 1 architecture & integration workshop per year

Performances, monitoring and security

- Audit logging / security supervision 24/7
- Anti-DDoS / unlimited bandwidth

Available Tenant Regions

- EMEA
 - France
 - United Kingdom
 - Germany
 - Poland
- North America
 - Canada
 - USA-East
 - USA-West
- Pacific Asia
 - Singapore
 - Australia

About Us

Filigran provides cyber threat intelligence, knowledge subsystems and crisis response solutions to thousands of cybersecurity and crisis management teams across the world. By developing open-source platforms such as OpenCTI, OpenEx, OpenCrisis and OpenRiskManager, Filigran actively participates in the defense and the preparation of organizations against threats and events they fear. Find more information at filigran.io, follow us on LinkedIn and Twitter.